

World Artists Experiences Presents

in partnership with the Embassy of the People's Republic of China

SPRING FESTIVAL/NEW YEAR

Featuring Artists from China

Tuesday, January 31, 2017

Maryland Hall for the Creative Arts
801 Chase Street, Annapolis, Maryland

Timed to celebrate the Chinese New Year of the Rooster, festivities will feature art exhibits, stage performances and hands-on activities representing many facets of Chinese life. The program is for all ages.

Beginning at 6 pm: Craft demonstrations including Sugar Sculpting, Paper Cutting, Embroidery, Bottle Painting, Doll Making and others.

On stage at 7 pm: Acrobatics, Peking Opera and Traditional Music.

Free Admission
Donations appreciated

Note: Maryland Hall closes if schools are closed due to weather. Check the website, watch for emails from WAE, listen to the radio, check facebook for final announcement.

“Arts as a bridge to international understanding”

For information: wae@comcast.net www.WorldArtists.org

