

WORLD ARTISTS EXPERIENCES' WRITING PROJECT

Requests YOUR Writing

ATTN: MARYLAND STUDENT WRITERS GRADES 3–12

You Are Invited To:

- Share stories about your experiences and what those experiences taught you about this year's topic.
- Share experiences that have helped you better understand the world in which we live.
- Have your writing considered for publication in the 2019 WAE Anthology.

Please review the enclosed page of additional information before beginning your writing project.

WRITING TOPIC

Breaking Barriers, Building Community — Connecting, Cooperating, Caring

REQUIREMENTS

1. Please follow the full instructions at www.worldartists.org and click on International Education.
2. Maximum length: for poetry 35 lines, for non-fiction prose 500 words. No longer than a single page.
3. Please submit no more than one piece of writing. No mailed copies will be accepted.
4. Submission must be student's original work; typed in WORD, 12 pt. font; single spaced.
5. Please give your piece an original title and double check submission for correct spelling, grammar, etc.
6. Attach your entry at the BOTTOM of the on-line submission form as directed on the website.
7. Attention Teachers: WAE encourages you to use this as an opportunity to help your students become better writers through feedback and revision.
8. Email submission to: writing@worldartists.org

DEADLINE: NOVEMBER 16, 2018

We want to hear what's on your mind about the world in which we live!