Petar Marić

Petar Marić, born in Serbia (Belgrade) in 1990, is the leading accordionist on the world stage for both the electronic and acoustical accordion, having won many major international competitions for accordion players. In addition to his broad repertoire of classical music originally written for accordion and transcriptions of compositions written for other instruments, Petar also plays a large number of virtuoso-compositions consisting of music from different countries and of different styles, enabling this world-class young artist to bring to his audiences all the exciting possibilities of the accordion.
